

Sexuality & Disability: What You Need To Know!

What is it?

Professional Development & Training

Sexuality & Disability: What You Need To Know! is a completely updated two day course. It is designed for health professionals, teachers, educational assistants (EAs), parents and any other people who support people with disability, to provide inclusive and accessible sexuality and relationships support.

Where is it?

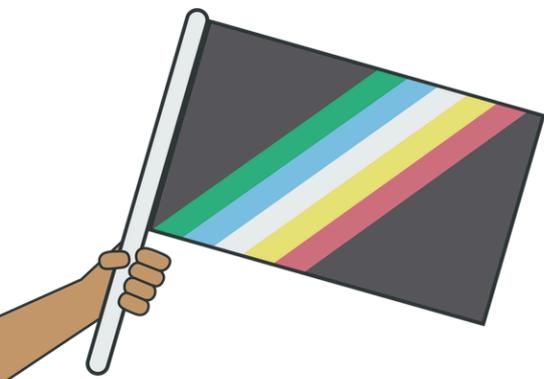

70 Roe Street,
Northbridge

When can I go?

2026 Dates:

- April 14-15
- July 29-30
- Sept 15-16
- Nov 25-26

Register online now! shq.org.au/course/sexuality-and-disability

Sexuality & Disability: What You Need To Know!

Day 1

- Self-reflection, exploring attitudes & values
- Key terminology for sexuality & disability
- Understanding the models of disability
- Exploring common myths and their impact
- Understanding the intersection of sexuality & disability
- Reviewing Comprehensive Sexuality Education (CSE)
- Exploring common challenges and teaching strategies
- Understanding supported decision making and dignity of risk

Day 2

- Sexuality and relationships resources and accessibility
- Supporting diversity in bodies, gender and sexuality
- Exploring sexual behaviours; responding and supporting
- Understanding protective interrupting and responding
- Improving confidence when teaching about sexuality and relationships
- Teaching: Consent, porn and sexting, and healthy and unhealthy relationships

Sexual Health
Quarters